

Sheep History

Since biblical times, sheep have provided three basic human needs: Food, Clothing, and Shelter.

This enabled early civilizations to explore and inhabit colder regions of the world.