

Tasseling

At about 75 days the last branch of the tassel is completely visible, the plant has reached full height, and the pollen shed begins.

(Number of days depends upon location, seed variety, weather, and other conditions.)